

EXPLORE

Lake James and its Watershed

Multi-generational Environmental Science Field Experience

FREE ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION PROGRAM
For 10th-12th grade high schoolers and college freshmen (ages 15-19)

October 20th-22nd

Camping

Spend the weekend camping at the Lake James State Park- Long Arm with college mentors and environmental professionals. Learn about environmental careers while spending time in the great outdoors!

Field work/Exploration of the natural world

Learn about wetlands in the Lake James Watershed and the amphibians that live there. Take a pontoon boat ride and perform water quality monitoring and learn about the limnology and ecology of Lake James.

Community Service

Participate in a community service activity at Lake James State Park.

Option to participate in just the day activities available.
Please inquire.

For more information and to apply:

CONTACT US:

828-475-2735

www.ljea.org

sophiemccarthy@ljea.org

